

Ernest,

My family and I would like to thank you for the web page dedication and wonderful things you wrote about my mother. She would be very pleased to know that her Christian ministry lives on through your web page.

Service to others was so important to my mother. As you know through her career as a realtor and through her church; grew to know a broad variety of people. Mom loved feeding people both physically and spiritually and made everyone feel welcome in her home. Often times newcomers to town or people she had recently met were guest at our family gatherings. This was often humorous to my sons because they never knew who might be at Sunday dinner. If my mother met you she embraced you. You became her friend- not just an acquaintance, but a part of her family.

Everyone that knew my mother would agree that when she was needed she was there. Whether it was bringing home-cooked food, which she loved to prepare, or just being there, doing what needed to be done. Mother was a true servant of Christ every day in every setting. I'd always known this about my mother, but not until her illness and passing did I realize the positive impact that her faith, her life and her example provided those blessed to know her.

Ernest, mother enjoyed your singing "His Eye is on the Sparrow", and I can't think of a more fitting symbol of my mother's life and faith than the Sparrow. Thank you again, and we wish you great success in providing blessings to other families during the tough times of their lives, as you did for us with your "Sparrow Ministries."

Sincerely,
